

I would like rules in place which serve the public, rather than private, interest. I am opposed to taking a vote which would lead to more media consolidation. I am urging you to please retain the current ownership rules on June 2, 2003.